Chapter 9

THE STORY OF ROBINSON CRUSOE

C. Answer these questions in detail. (Long answers)

Q3. Why did Robinson Crusoe breed goats?

Ans. Robinson had to go out every day with his gun to hunt for food. One day he saw that his ammunition was going to finish. So he thought that he must breed goats in flocks for the steady supply of goat's flesh.

Q4. What did he do with the skins of the animals he shot?

Ans. He saved the skins of all creatures he shot and dried them. When his clothes were worn out, replaced them with garments made of those. He made an umbrella also of skins to keep off both sun and rain.
